Memo No: COE/UHS/770 /2021

Date : 27.04.2021

Notice

In accordance to the information provided by the authorities of National Institute of Locomotor Disabilities (Divyagyan) that the institute concerned cannot hold any academic activity because of surge of COVID cases in their campus; it has been decided by the competent authority of The West Bengal University of Health Sciences to postpone the ensuing 1st and 2nd BOT and BPO April-May, 2021 Examination. It is further decided for the favour of the students studying BPT course in the same institute that they may not appear in the examination.

These candidates will be accommodated in the next examination for the said courses as and when deemed conducive by both the University and the Institution. It is to be further mentioned that no chance will be lost for the candidates for not appearing in the aforesaid examinations.
