1. Jurisdiction of the University:

Admission to the seats in Master of Pharmacy (M. Pharm.) courses to be conducted by the West Bengal University of Health Sciences (WBUHS) shall be made marks obtained in the admission test.

2. Eligibility criteria:

a. Citizens of India who have obtained the following qualifications shall be eligible to apply for the M. Pharm course:
A Pass in B. Pharm. Degree examination of an Indian university established by law in India from an institution approved by Pharmacy Council of India and has scored not less than 55 % of the maximum marks (aggregate of all semesters of B. Pharm.)
Every student, selected for admission to post graduate pharmacy program in any PCI approved institution should have obtained registration with the State Pharmacy Council or should obtain the same within one month from the date of his/her admission,

b. Candidates who are already pursuing any other course or service are not eligible for admission. However, candidates completing the course or resigning from the course or service before the date of counseling will be eligible to get admission.
The candidate will have to furnish the marksheets of all B Pharm semester examinations or the receipt of acceptance of the resignation letter from the employer if the case necessitates at the time of counseling.

c. The course will consider PWD candidates as eligible if they certify their disability to be less than 40% of the various benchmark disabilities as detailed in RPWD Act, 2016. The PWD certificate; indicating the extent of disability has to be certified from the Dept. of Physical Medicine, IPGME&R, Kolkata.

3. Filling up of forms:

The candidates are instructed to fill in the proforma of application appended at the end of this Information Booklet and attach the photocopies of the documents as instructed therein. The applications should be accompanied with a demand draft of Rs. 5,000/- (Rs. Five thousand only) drawn in favour of "The West Bengal University of Health Sciences", payable at Kolkata as the Processing fees for the entrance examination and subsequent counseling. The filled in proforma for the course will have to be deposited at the office of the Controller of Examinations (CoE), WBUHS, within 4.00 pm on 7th September, 2026 either personally or by 8th September, 2026 by post. But in any case, the draft has to be purchased on or before 7th September, 2026. The candidates are instructed to keep a photocopy of the filled on proforma duly signed by the person receiving it at the office of CoE or the receipt of posting the proforma to the postal department with them as the proof of submission of the proforma. It will be required at the time of counselling.

4. Refund of the Processing Fees:

If the eligibility of the candidate is found to be unsuitable to appear for the entrance examination for any reason; the draft of Rs. 5000/- accompanying the application will be returned back to the concerned candidate. However in other cases; if the candidate is eligible to appear for the admission test, the demand draft has to be forfeited even if the candidate is absent during the examination or in subsequent counseling.

5. Institution and Available Seats:

M. Pharm. courses are taught at Haldia Institute of Pharmacy, Hatiberia, Haldia, Purba Medinipur721657. The available seats are:

a) M. Pharm. (Pharmaceutical Chemistry): 13 unreserved seats
b) M. Pharm. (Pharmaceutical Analysis): 13 unreserved seats
c) M. Pharm. (Pharmacology): 13 unreserved seats
d) M. Pharm. (Pharmaceutics): 13 unreserved seats

6. Admission Test :

a) The written test will be held at the University premises or anywhere else as detailed in the admit card at time and date enumerated later in this document and as instructed in the admit card. The candidates are required to attend to the examination hall half an hour prior to the beginning of the examination and no candidate will be allowed to enter the hall after examination commences.

b) The examination will be of one hour and twenty minutes in duration during which no candidate will be allowed to leave the examination hall under any circumstances even if the candidate has finished the examination. They will leave the examination hall only after all the OMRs are collected and duly matched with the attendance sheet.

c) The candidate will have to carry a valid photo ID (such as Passport / AADHAR Card / Voter ID / Driving License) which will have to be produced to the invigilator at the examination hall.

d) The candidate can only carry the admit card for the test and the photo ID in the examination hall. The OMR sheet, question paper and the ball point pen – all will be supplied from the University.

e) The candidates are instructed to write their roll nos., series and serial no. of the question booklet very carefully on the OMR sheet and blacken the corresponding circles. They will put their Name, Name of the Test the candidate has appeared in, centre of examination and full signature over the OMR sheet. Candidates must remember that the OMR sheets are not replaced under any circumstances. So they should be handling it cautiously so that it does not get damaged or soiled in any respect and blotted with ink on anywhere of it. This can hamper the scanning of the OMR sheets.

f) The examinations will be of single best response type MCQs set in English language. Correct response to each of the questions will carry one mark. There will be negative marking for wrong answers. Multiple responses to any question will be regarded as wrong even if any of the options selected was the correct option. One mark will be given for the correct answer to the questions and one-fourth will be deducted for wrong answers. No marks will be deducted for questions not answered.

g) There will be one hundred MCQs in the question paper; set on the standard syllabus prescribed for the qualifying examinations. The standard of questions will be of B. Pharm and will be on all the different subjects covered under the syllabus of it.

h) The candidates are advised to be careful enough to blacken the circles on the OMR sheet as their chosen response. The entire circle will have to be blackened, though the candidate need not be artistic in doing so. There is no possibility to change the response on the OMR sheet as blackening of more than one circle will mean double response and will automatically be processed as wrong response.

7. Admit Cards:

Admit Card will be sent to the individual candidate through the mail address provided by them. No application for non-receipt of the admit will be entertained by the University. The admit card would contain information about the time and venue of the admission test along with the detailed instruction about the conduct of examination.

8. Merit List:

Merit list will be prepared based on the marks obtained in the admission test.

If two candidates are seen to be tied on the same score, the one with lesser wrong response will be placed higher in the merit list. If the tie cannot be broken in this principle, the one with earlier date of birth will be placed higher in the merit list.

8. Admission:

7. The provisional merit list as well as the date and time of counseling will be available in the University website.

8. Offer letter for admission to the courses will be given at the time of counseling after successful verification of the testimonials.

9. The candidates appearing for counseling will have to bring the following documents in original along with a set of self-attested copies of those at the University premises arranged in the same order as:

a. Receipt of submission of the application form
b. Admit card of the admission test.
c. Class X admit card/Class X pass certificate as proof of age
d. EPIC/Passport/Aadhar/Diving license as photo identity card.
e. All Mark sheets of the B. Pharm examinations
f. Any other relevant documents, e.g. PWD certificate, acceptance of resignation letter etc.

10. It is expected that the candidates have ensured that they are eligible to appear in the examination based on the laid down criteria for appearing at the test. There would be no validation of the applications and credentials submitted by the candidates before the test. So if it is found at any stage after the test that there is any discrepancy anywhere in the process of admission, the candidature will be summarily rejected.

11. It is hereby mentioned that all information regarding fees payable or stipends available for the students should always be obtained and confirmed from the individual colleges. WBUHS will not be answerable to any query arising of these issues.
